JANET MACKENZIE MEDAL 2023 NOMINATION FORM	4

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

The Janet Mackenzie Medal ('the Mackenzie') is IPEd's highest award. It is given to an outstanding professional editor who has lifted the standard of the editing profession and/or given exemplary service to IPEd. Any member of IPEd can nominate another member. The award consists of a medal, an electronic rendering of the medal for use by the recipient and Honorary Life Membership of IPEd (if the recipient is not already an HLM).

The award honours Janet Mackenzie DE (1947–2018). Janet was an Honorary Life Member and founding member of Editors Victoria (1970) and served IPEd in many capacities over many years. Janet was passionate about the editing profession, as attested to in her book, The Editor's Companion, and was a strong advocate for the establishment of IPEd and its Accreditation Board, often leading the work involved. She served on the first Standards Working Group (1998–2001) and she was also a member of the Style Manual 7th Edition Steering Group, from which she resigned only weeks before her death in September 2018.

The Janet Mackenzie Medal is awarded annually; however, IPEd reserves the right to not award the medal in any year if, in the opinion of the judges and IPEd, there is no candidate of sufficient merit to justify this award. Judges will remain anonymous; their decision will be final and no appeals will be entered into.
